

OHIO RIVER SWEEP
FACT SHEET

- The Ohio River Sweep involves volunteers from six states:
 - Pennsylvania
 - West Virginia
 - Kentucky
 - Ohio
 - Indiana
 - Illinois
- There are 76 counties included in this effort.
- The Sweep covers 981 river miles or 2,300 miles of shoreline from Pittsburgh to Cairo, Illinois.
- Louisville and Jefferson County have 29 miles of riverbank.
- Last year, over 20,000 volunteers turned out for the Ohio River Sweep and collected over 16,000 tons of trash and debris.
- In Louisville and Jefferson County, over 500 volunteers collected almost 40 tons of trash, including:
 - Junk Cars
 - Automobile and Truck Tires
 - Discarded Kitchen Appliances
 - Mattress Springs
 - Plastics
 - Aluminum Cans
- Event Sponsors include:

AK Steel	DuPont
American Electric Power	Duquesne Light
AEP- River Transportation	Exxon Co. USA
ARCH Chemicals, Inc.	Fidelity Investments
Ashland Chemical	Fifth Third Bank
Ashland, Inc.	Ford
ATOFINA	Gallatin Steel
BASF	GE Plastics
Bayer	Hanson Aggregates
Dayton Power and Light	Kentucky River Authority
Dominion Foundation	Koppers Industries
Dow Corning	Lafarge

Louisville and Jefferson County
Metropolitan Sewer District
Louisville Gas & Electric
Louisville Water Company
Marathon Ashland Petroleum, LLC
Massac County Soil and Water
Conservation District
Mead Johnson Nutritionals

Neville Chemical
NOVA Chemicals
Procter & Gamble
Touchstone Energy
Toyota Motor Manufacturing North
America, Inc.
Tri State River Products

- Event Coordinators are:
 - ORSANCO (Ohio River Valley Water Sanitation Commission)
 - The Metropolitan Sewer District
 - Louisville Metro Government

OHIO RIVER SWEEP 2003

COLLECTION SITES

1. Hayes Kennedy Park (Public)
2. Juniper Beach Area (Public)
Lime Kiln Lane at River Road
3. Cox Park (Public)
4. Eva Bandman Park (Public)
5. Riverwalk (Public)
10th and Main Streets
6. Shawnee Park (Public)
Broadway at the River
7. Riverview Park (Public)
Greenwood Road and Cane Run Road
- * 8. Falls of the Ohio Park
- * 9. Ashland Park
- * 10. George Rogers Clark Homesite

*For information on Southern Indiana sites, please call
ORSANCO at 1-800-359-3977.